For the Journal. MAY 14th. 1961. On yesterday we were not a little surprised and gratified, see the company of volunteers arrive at the place of balloting. This com any, known as the " Morre's Creek Riflenumbers at present 60 or 70, most of whom are young men, just in the bloom of manhood; but they are of the right stripe. They are awaiting the orders of their Goveror, to leave for any point where they may be needed, South of Mason and Dixon's Line-no count they will serve their country as true patriots should. They are all of one mind, me heart, and one sentiment, and that mind, that heart, and North Carolina and Tennessee. that sentiment, is the independence of the Southern States, and the welfare of the Southern Confederacy. In the langasge of another: "Sink or swim, live or die, survive or sh, they will give their hearts and hands to this cause.' Amid music and enthusia-tic cheers, this little band marched a military order to the polls, and voted, it is needless to This company is not composed of wild, reckiess and ignorant men, who think war a frolic or child's play; but men of stability and nerve. Yes, they are in every sense, men, determined men, who will resist to the intenances tell in unmistakeable terms, that killed. they are prepared to meet the hardships, vicissitudes and forrors of war, let them be what they may. They will never submit to wrong; but come weal, come woe, they prevailed in their ranks, and we were highly delighted with pass through that city at all encouraging to the South. Regiment Volunteers. both privates and officers. The most implicit obedience to o their superiors was shown by the members of this little company. After they voted, the volunteers and all, a company of not less than a hundred, were invited by Dr. J. F impson, to his house, to a dinner, which he, D. McDuffie, A. E. Taylor and L. Vollers, Esqrs., had prepared gratis, for the company. After their kindest thanks to the Dr. and his friends, for the rich repast which they enjoyed after a march of ten miles through the sun, the volunteers again formed into ranks and returned to their camp-ground, ten miles from Point Caswell, or place of voting, and thirteen from the old battle ground, or Moore's Creek Bridge. We must say we were agreeably disappointed with regard to this ompany of voluntteers. Their knowledge of mintary tacics, though limited, far surpassed our expectations, so much so that we, and a large number of persons from different parts of our and Bladen counties, visited their campquip the company; in which we have been again agreeamy disappointed-aithough the day has been very rainy, many ladies and gentlemen have been to the camp to-day (Tuesday the 14th inst..) who have subscribed liberally, and the former have volunteered to make the uniforms for the company whenever called upon, or requested by the Captain to do so. Bev. S. C. Alexander, being called upon, made a speech to the soldiers, in which he strikingly portrayed the evils, as well as the necessity of a war, against that power, which, as he said in the language of the Scriplures was, 30 years ago, a little cloud, not larger than a man's hand, in the Northern States; but that had spread and gathered with each revolving year, until now it was bursting pon us in all its dark fury of abolitionism, and that as we hast meet it, to meet it like men, and at once strike the blow for our independence and rights, for longer delay would and must inevitably prove more disastrous, as this tempestuous floud increased daily. He went on then to enumerate many Tather a curse; that our forts, erected and constructed by the general government for the self-protection of individual States, were held by the government against the will of the independent States, and their citizens had had to and would have to fight for their own property. So that such as that nefathers, is the wish and desire of the author of this tketch, in behalf of this little band of patriots.

Their names they'll ne'er disgrace, They are the Moore's Creek boys,

And they'll go through with Jeff Davis, Led by their Captain Hawse.

They are like a little band

Of brothers all united. And by their Captain they'll stand,

Till every ray of hope is blighted.

And if they have not a Caswell,

When the sound of war doth rattle.

Of them killed by a Yankee shot, We're sure there are not many,

Who'll live 'till it's forgot,

So hurrah for the Moore's Creek boys, And the Old North S.ate forever, They'll fight the Yankees ere they pause,

FOR THE WEEK ENDING MAY 22D, 1861. During the week just ended the market has ruled quiet, and in the absence of shipping but few transactions have taken place in country produce. The receipts of Flour and Bacon have been rather better, the high prices paid for a few weeks past having caused parties to bring these articles to market, and now it is difficult to sell unless at lower

REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET.

Small sales of Spisits Turpentine have been effected at prices ranging from 35 to 40 cents per gallon; there is, how. April, 1861. Solomon is of middle size, dark complexion, ever, very little coming in, and the stock is confined to about 28 years of age, formerly belonged to Dr. Frederick small lots in receivers hands. Two or three vessels having J. Hill, deceased. from home a volunteer, but if not killed will be back the arrived, may cause some enquiry from buyers, and our latter quotation will no doubt be obtained. In CRUDE TURPENTINE nothing has been done for the want of shipping, and distillers generally having stopped operations, there is no demand at present. One or two small lots were received and sold at $1 50 for yellow dip. Rosin continues unsaleable. A lot of 25 bbls. new Pale was received and sold on Thursday at $2 25 per 280 lbs. TAR-Is also dull. Sale of only one small lot at 75 cents

BEEF CATTLE are wanted, and would sell readily. We quote at 7 to 8 cents per lb.

Corn Meal is in moderate stock and sells from the grana ries at 90 cents per bushel, in lots to suit. FLOUR is in better supply, and there is merely a retail enquiry. Parcels are offering on market, but buyers are not isposed to purchase unless at materially reduced prices .-

GRAIN .- For Corn the market is better, the price having A large capital will be required to conduct the business, advanced a shade; there is, however, a fair supply in dealbut believing we shall be sustained, we are willing to embark ers hands. The receipts for the week comprise only 4 529 bushels, of which 629 do. went into store, and 3,900 do. sold at 85 cents per bushel.——PEAS.—A lot of 1,000 bushels Black was received on Monday and sold from vessel at $1 10 per bushel .- RICE .- The market is well supplied with clean, and there is only a small business doing at 41 a 5 Molasses .- A cargo of 15 bbls., 21 tierces and 221 hhds.

was received from Cardenas on Monday, and is selling from wharf at 32 cents per gallon, in lots to suit. The Provision market is better supplied, and prices have a declining 'endency. No sales of consequence have taken place during the week, and we refer to our table for quota-No Timber or Shingles received, and it would be impossi ble to sell at any price, as there is no demand for either.

For prices of all articles not mentioned, we would refer to our table above. FAYETTEVILLE, May 20 .- Bacun 12 a 14 cents; Bees wax 28 a 30; Cotton-Fair to good 11 a 12. Ordinary to Middling 84 a 10; Feathers 45 a 50; Flour-Family $7 75 $5 00, Super. $7 50 a $7 75, Fine $7 25 a $7 50, Scratched $7 00 a $7 25; Grain-Corn 90 a 95 cents, Wheat $1 25

Receipts of produce continue light. Flour-Declined 25 cents per bbl., good stock on hand. Bacon and Lard-No material change in prices. Corn-The market is well supplied with both country and Spirits Turpentine-Unsteady prices, varying from 27 to quiry for the article to day, which resulted in the sale of 349 bales, at previous prices. The particulars are as follows: 3 bales at 9; 111 at 94; 13 at 10; 8 at 104; 27 at 104; 30 at 102; 50 at 10 13-16; 56 at 11: 50 at 111; and 1 bale at 12c.
